Opening Program program of the UNESCO-UNEVOC Sub-Regional Seminar on Curriculum Innovations and Best Practices in TVET held in Iloilo City, Philippines on April 14-16, 2008
Dr. L. Efison Munjanganja as he delivers his message during the opening program of the UNESCO-UNEVOC Sub-Regional Seminar on Curriculum Innovations and Best Practices in TVET held in Iloilo City, Philippines on April 14-16, 2008

President Luis M. Sorolla, Jr. welcomes the participants of the UNESCO-UNEVOC Sub-Regional Seminar on Curriculum Innovations and Best Practices in TVET
Dr. Ricardo B. Abalena gives the rationale of the seminar and the introduction of Key College Officials and participants of the seminar

Dr. L. Efison Munjanganja and Dr. Ricardo B. Abalena being interviewed by ABS-CBN television Network after the Opening Program
UNESCO-UNEVOC Sub-regional Seminar Participants with Keynote Speaker and the representative of the City Mayor

The very attentive participants of the seminar
Dr. Munjanganja discusses some issues and challenges in TVET Curriculum Innovations and best Practices
College students perform a musical number to entertain the participants of the UNESCO-UNEVOC Sub-regional Seminar during the Welcome Dinner and Cultural Presentation.

Time to relax, time to appreciate the culture of the host country, Philippines as we are entertained with songs and dances.