College students performs a musical number to entertain the participants of the UNESCO-UNEVOC Sub-regional Seminar during the Welcome Dinner and Cultural Presentation.

Time to relax, time to appreciate the culture of the host country, Philippines as we are entertained with songs and dances.
Dr. Munjanganja with the College President and some international participants together with Deans Emma Quidato and Ricardo B. Abalena

A TESDA delegate reacts to some issues in TVET during the question and answer session of the seminar.
Miss Octaviano of the Office of the City Mayor of Iloilo City as she delivers the Welcome Remarks in behalf of City Mayor, Jerry P. Trenas

A dance number presented to entertain the participants of the UNESCO-UNEVOC Seminar on TVET
TESDA Executive Director Edwin C. Gatinao delivers the Keynote Address in behalf of the TESDA Director General during the opening of the UNESCO-UNEVOC Sub-regional seminar on Curriculum Innovations and Best Practices in TVET.

Very attentive participants listens to the lecture/presentation.
UNESCO-UNEVOC Park Marker top about to be unveiled. Below is the unveiled Park Marker
Shown above are two Chinese representatives of UNESCO-UNEVOC Centre in China plating the ceremonial tree. Below are the Philippine representatives as they do the same task.
Dr. L. Efison with the College President Dr. Luis M. Sorolla, Jr. planting the ceremonial tree at the UNESCO-UNEVOC Park.