

News submitted by: Shenzhen Polytechnic, through Mr. Robert Parua (UNESCO Beijing Office)

Date: 16/04/2018

Shenzhen Polytechnic (UNEVOC Centre) visited the UNESCO Beijing Office

The key points discussed were:

- Strengthen partnership with Shenzhen Polytechnic and their role as UNEVOC. The Director noted the role of CIVTE as UNEVOC Centre in China and KRIVET as UNEVOC Cluster Coordinator for East and Southeast Asia.
- identify ways to mobilize public and private sector funding for Capacity building activities.
- Organize jointly firstly a small consultation for Coordinators of UNEVOC Centres in Countries. Build on the success to expand to regional and international level.
- How Shenzhen Polytechnic could contribute to Chinese Government's poverty alleviation strategy in-terms of skills training.
- Participation of UNESCO at the International TVET conference in Belt and Road Initiative. Meeting scheduled for 10-12 May 2018. Shenzhen Polytechnic and UNESCO Beijing and UNEVOC Bonn could potentially develop a project for funding for capacity development of TVET & UNEVOC Centres in Belt and Road countries. Further to discuss at the International Conference.
- Participation of Director at the 2018 UNEVOC TVET Leadership Programme in Bonn.

Picture @copyright UNESCO Beijing

Mr. Robert Parua, Education Specialist, welcoming Dr. Wenming YANG, Director of UNEVOC Centre, Shenzhen Polytechnic at the UNESCO Beijing Office 16 April 2018

Mr. Robert Parua welcoming Dr. Wenming YANG, Director of UNEVOC Centre, Shenzhen Polytechnic at the UNESCO Beijing Office accompanied by the Former Director of UNEVOC Centre in Shenzhen Polytechnic Prof Fan Dayue. Mr. Parua and Dr. Yang reviewed past collaboration and discussed potential areas for collaboration in TVET. 16 April 2018

Mr. Robert Parua, Education Specialist receiving a gift from Dr. Wenming YANG, Director of UNEVOC Centre, Shenzhen Polytechnic. 16 April 2018