Background

The UNESCO-UNEVOC International Centre assists UNESCO Member States to achieve high quality, relevant, lifelong and cost effective technical and vocational education and training for all. Its aim is to maximise learner’s prospects in the labour market. It creates synergies with UNESCO Headquarters, UNESCO Institutes/Centres and Field Offices; and works in close partnership with other international and national agencies in the field of technical and vocational education and training. The Centre is the main hub of the international UNEVOC Network made up of UNEVOC centres in UNESCO Member States.

The BILT (Bridging Innovation and Learning in TVET) project seeks to support TVET institutions in addressing the transformation challenges in the fields of "Greening TVET", "Entrepreneurship", "Industry 4.0" and "Migration and TVET". The project complements national developments to explore and support innovative, market-oriented and attractive TVET-careers/professions and inspires new modes of learning and cooperation in TVET. It leverages on the existing mechanism of the UNEVOC Network, initially with a focus on its European cluster, and eventually through bridging experiences and learning with other regions, most notably Asia-Pacific and Africa.
